

HPD Incident #: 3797207

Location: 2900 Manila

Date: January 8, 2007

Time: 11:00:00

Offense: Aggravated Robbery with a Deadly Weapon - Handgun

A home invasion occurred in the 2900 block of Manila. Someone knocked on the front door. When the victim opened the door, there was a Hispanic female, who spoke spanish. Immediately, a Hispanic male, well dressed, and well groomed, appeared. The victim was forced inside at gunpoint. The Hispanic male inquired where the money was. Soon after that, three more Hispanic males entered the house.

One of the three males was about 45 years old and a big man. He acted as though he was in charge. This suspect was well dressed & well groomed. The other two males, who entered with the 45 year old were younger, 20 years or so. They were dressed in a typical teenage fashion. One of them was of dark complexion.

The female, who first knocked on the door, was well dressed and well groomed.

One of the young suspects threatened the victim. He told her that if she didn't tell them where the money was, they were going to kill her. After the victim showed them where the money was, her hands were tied and she was placed in the bathroom.

The house was ransacked. In addition to money, video cameras and credit cards were stolen.

No vehicle was observed.

Composite pictures of the female suspect and of the older male suspect, who appeared to be in charge, were developed with the victim's help.
